

Trust Arts Education

The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust's Arts Education Department provides a wide range of exciting, high-quality arts education experiences for students and educators seeking professional and personal growth. Partnering with local communities and schools, the Trust offers in-school and out-of-school residencies, workshops, classes, and professional development opportunities. Trust Arts Education programs can be customized to meet the needs of audiences of all ages and abilities, nurturing a greater appreciation and understanding through the arts.

Learn more about TrustArts.org/Education or call (412) 471-6079.

Early Childhood Programs

The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust provides hands-on and interactive programming for young children. Through high-quality arts integration and educational experiences, young children are given the opportunity to develop their imaginations, foster critical thinking, increase self-esteem, and broaden their perspectives. Programs include:

- Western Pennsylvania Wolf Trap
- Early Childhood Residencies
- Story Corners
- Jazztime! Early Childhood Jazz Performance Series

K-12 Programs

The Pittsburgh Cultural Trust offers comprehensive and diverse programming for young artists and audiences seeking professional and personal growth. Through in-school and out-of-school residencies, workshops, and classes, Trust Arts Education programs provide strong skill development and an expanded perspective for tomorrow's artists and professionals. Programs include:

- K-12 In-School and Out-of-School Residencies and Workshops
- ArtsExcursions Workshops
- ArtsMasters Pre-Show Workshops
- Disney Musicals in Schools
- Summer Camps
- School day matinee performances, bus subsidies, and Tix for Teachers program

Professional Development for Educators

Professional development is a key component of Trust Arts Education, creating and delivering robust learning events rooted in current educational theory and the needs of today's educators. Hands-on programs focus on arts integration and provide teachers with innovative tools and techniques in order to increase their abilities to incorporate artistic practices into their own teaching style. All workshops are open to anyone seeking to deepen student arts engagement. Act 48 and PQAS credit hours available.

College Students and Adults

Trust Arts Education offers workshops and programs open to the community, open to anyone who wishes to engage more deeply with performing or visual arts. Programs include:

- Saturday Workshops
- Know the Show Before You Go
- ArtsMasters